

EXPLORING THE GOD QUESTION

Does science point to the existence of a creator?

Is Christianity a more compelling and convincing explanation of our existence than the atheist alternative?

Where does the evidence point?

Take three fascinating journeys in just six half-hour programmes to discover the breathtaking wonders of the Cosmos, Life on Earth and Human Mind & Consciousness.

Join world renowned experts including John Lennox, Francis Collins, William Lane Craig, John Polkinghorne and others exploring how science points to the existence of a creator.

A challenge to Richard Dawkins' atheism by John Lennox at the Oxford Museum of Natural History

Also evaluate the alternative atheist worldview of Richard Dawkins, Sam Harris, Dan Dennett, Michael Shermer and others— that we are merely winners in a cosmic lottery.

Become informed and equipped to discuss Christianity in a world that has lost faith in religion.

PROGRAMME ONE: COSMOS

Does the Cosmos help make the case for the Creator?

Scientists believe that 13.8 billion years ago time and space arrived with an unexplained 'Big Bang'. Somehow order emerged. How?

"Where the Big Bang came from? We don't know"
Kim Weaver, Astrophysicist, NASA

The universe is finely tuned to support life on earth. Even the slightest change would be devastating. Why is the universe so finely tuned?

The Milky Way: fruitful earth with its sophisticated life forms is located on a spiral arm in a perfect relationship with its sun. Why?

Florence, Italy—one of the centres of the scientific revolution which began 500 years ago. John Lennox argues that “the motor that drove its rise was belief in a rational intelligent creator of a universe which can be investigated and explained using mathematics”.

PROGRAMME TWO: LIFE AND EVOLUTION

Does biology help make the case for the Creator?

In a universe 13.8 billion light years in diameter planet earth is the only known location where sophisticated life exists and where the conditions to sustain it are all in place. This awesome fact raises the question ‘why?’.

A little closer to the sun and earth would burn up; a little further away and earth would freeze life out of existence.

A sample of the amazing diversity of plant and animal life on planet earth.

In the beginning, God...

Human beings: the climax of creation

Francis Collins argues that Dan Dennett's view—that Darwin left God nothing to do—is a deep misunderstanding of science and philosophy.

Charles Darwin

"Evolution cannot explain its own existence. Nor did Darwin (above) explain the origin of life." John Lennox

Dan Dennett recounts how, when he discovered Darwin, he abandoned belief in God. But what kind of God did he believe in?

The wonder of DNA

"Whenever we see a code with meaning we infer upward to intelligence immediately." John Lennox

The wonder of the reproduction of life

DNA, the code at the heart of life, is an instruction book of 3 billion letters about how to build the whole body from an embryo. Simply astonishing!

Galapagos Islands, Ecuador

From the Galapagos Islands to the ancient landscape of North West Scotland, follow the compelling story of the development of life.

Loch Torridon, Scotland

Without a range of special conditions on planet earth life could not exist.

PROGRAMME THREE: MIND AND CONSCIOUSNESS

Does neuroscience make the case for the creator?

The human brain: arguably the most sophisticated phenomenon in the whole universe.

"We all know we are conscious but we don't know what consciousness is."

Denyse O'Leary, Co-author—The Spiritual Brain

Science has not yet discovered why we are able to create memories.

William Lane Craig argues that human brains are hard-wired for spiritual experience. If there is a creator God, it is hardly surprising he has created the means through which we can connect with him.

Prof Alvin Plantinga helps us understand why belief in God is obvious to many people across the world.

Dr Peter Fenwick studied people in transition from life to death and reports astonishing findings.

Prof Peter Atkins thinks “God is a lie and we should not waste time on the subject”.

Prof Andrew Newberg helps us interrogate why we believe what we believe.

Dr John Rutter, a composer, argues that music is an important link to a spiritual dimension of human consciousness.

Consciousness involves...

...a sense of right and wrong...

....a sense of beauty...

...a sense of God...

...and a sense of what is true.

Meet more than 60 inmates of a high security prison. They claim that the reality of Christian faith has transformed their lives — even though their long prison sentences continue.

What the audience says about Exploring the God Question

"Every believer and non believer should see this excellent series addressing the most important questions of life."

Dr Greg Pritchard Director,
European Leadership Forum

"This is the best resource I've ever encountered in 35 years of ministry."

Very Rev Dr Martin Fair,
Former Church of Scotland Moderator

"A captivating and engaging series, promoting critical thinking on the issues."

Mandy Evans-Ewing
Humanist University Chaplain

"The conversations initiated between Christians and sceptics, as a result of encountering this excellent series, regularly continue."

Robin Murphy,
International Students Leader

"A first class series that addresses the questions of a very wide audience but also satisfies the minds of erudite scientists."

Prof John Lennox,
University of Oxford

"An outstanding series redressing the balance of public discussion on these matters which has been unduly tilted in an atheist direction."

Sir John Polkinghorne,
Former President, Queens College,
University of Cambridge

"The current clash of theistic and atheist worldviews is superbly presented. A 'must see' for anyone interested in the relationship between science and belief in a creator."

Baroness Cox, House of Lords, Westminster Parliament, London
